

PUBLIC HOUSES / EATING OUT

Below are some of the many places to eat around our area and no listing can do them justice or remain up to date so we appreciate any input from visitors to our website and our guests to White Horse Farm.

Please note that it is always advisable to ring ahead to check current details and times and to book a table in the summer, as most places can be very busy.

Pubs - by distance within some 10 miles

Hunters Moon - Middlemarsh - Tel: 01963 210966

Dog Friendly. www.hunters-moon.org.uk

Just next door to White Horse Farm less than 150 yards walk.

Always very popular with our guests for prompt friendly service with a varied tasty menu. Take away service available.

Gaggle of Geese - <https://gaggleofgeese.co.uk/>

Buckland Newton Tel: 01300 345 249 or 345157

A freehouse pub in rural Dorset with five acres of gardens, skittle alley, camping and shepherd huts. Food is made in-house by their Chef Team. Using locally sourced produce, menu focuses on pub classics. Family owned and run, Dog Friendly. - some 1.92 miles

The Halsey Arms - Pulham, Dorset, DT2 7DZ- some 2.5 miles

01258 817344 <https://www.thehalseyarmspulham.co.uk>

The Halsey Arms is a family run family friendly country pub and restaurant with a great atmosphere quality beers wines and spirits. Not on the main roads so less well known to our guests but a good local pub with atmosphere with local produce good quality food. Worth searching out.

Rose and Crown - <http://www.roseandcrownlongburton.com/>

Longburton. Tel: 01963 210 202 - some 3.6 miles.

Dogs Allowed. Pub Food

The Rose & Crown is a friendly family run pub, that is situated in the middle of the village.

The Rose & Crown is known for it's variety of both local beverages and wholesome food.

Whether it's a local Twisted Cider or Margaret Ralphs' venison faggots that appear on our 'Pub Classics' . Four legged friends are more than welcome in the bar area.

Cerne Abbas has been described as 'a jewel of the Dorset countryside'. From the Tudor houses in Abbey Street to the natural beauty of the surrounding valley there is plenty to see and do with many picturesque walks and historical sights to visit and 3 well supported and recommended pubs by our previous guests.

The Royal Oak <https://theroyaloakcerneabbas.co.uk/>

Cerne Abbas Tel: 01300 341 797 - some 3.9 miles, Creeper-clad 16th-c thatched village-centre pub; low black beams, flagstones and rustic memorabilia, nice log fire, well kept ales including local Cerne Abbas, good home-made food from lunchtime sandwiches to daily specials, friendly helpful service; some live music; children and dogs welcome,

The New Inn

Cerne Abbas. Tel: 01300 341 274 - some 3.9 miles

Dogs Allowed, Pub Food www.newinncerneabbas.co.uk

Varied Menu is created by using fresh, locally sourced food, prepared in large and busy kitchen with 28 cover dining area. Children's play area.

The Giant Inn

Cerne Abbas, Tel: 01300 341441 - some 3.9 miles

<https://www.thegiantcerneabbas.co.uk>

Dogs Allowed

Formerly known as The Red Lion, was rebuilt a century ago after a fire in 1898 but the stone fireplace in the bar dates back to the 16th Century.

A traditional former coaching house serving local real ales, home cooked selection of food. Children and dog friendly. pretty garden at rear and traditional skittle alley

The White Hart

<https://www.yetminsterwhitehart.pub/>

A TRADITIONAL HISTORIC DORSET FREEHOUSE WITH ACCOMMODATION - SERVING LOCAL CRAFT ALES, WEST COUNTRY CIDERS AND HEARTY PUB FOOD

High St Yetminster 01935 872338 - 3.9 miles

Chetnole Inn

Chetnole Nr Sherborne. Tel: 01935 872337 - 4.15 miles

Attractive country pub with beams and huge flagstones, real ales, popular food and seats in the back garden; bedrooms. Dog Friendly www.thechetnoleinn.co.uk

There are various bars/rooms offering fine food, log fires, a relaxed atmosphere and great local ales. Recently gained Michelin Recognition.

There are obviously many many more and are subject to ownership/management changes so check out <https://www.visit-dorset.com/food-and-drink> Some others as we have experienced or recommended by past guests.

Acorn Inn

Pub Food & Restaurant - some 8 miles

Tel: 01935 83228 www.acorn-inn.co.uk

Situated in the centre of Evershot village Traditional Coaching Inn, oak panelled bars, wood and stone floors, patio garden.

DOGS ALLOWED IN VILLAGE BAR

Brace of Pheasants

Plush. Tel: 01300 348357 - some 8 miles,

www.braceofpheasants.co.uk

1st class Pub restaurant food from local meat /produce.

Strongly recommended by prior gastro pub visitors.

The Helyar Arms

Moor Lane , East Coker BA22 9JR. 01935 862332. Dog Friendly

Some 13 miles away but well worth the drive.

<https://www.thehelyararms.com>

A charming 15th century inn in a gorgeous classic Somerset village, serving real food, and providing a friendly and relaxing atmosphere for all to enjoy.

Restaurants

Sherborne town is only some 6-7 miles away has many restaurants too many to list here - check out their official tourist website and see for yourself

www.sherborntown.com/Restaurants

Dorchester is some 12 miles south and again has many popular restaurants to chose from www.Dorchester- places to eat

For lunch or tea time you should try the Horse with the Red Umbrella - Mein Host John is an occasional golf partner and will make you very welcome!

Fish & Chips??

Abbey Friar Fish & Chips

257 Westbury, Sherborne, Tel : 01935 812094 <https://abbeyfriar.webs.com>

In Westbury which is a stones throw from the Abbey located at the bottom of the town. of a thirty four seater fully licensed bar / restaurant known as Dochertys named after their granny - great reviews!

Nearest other Fish & Chip shops just check out Yell.com

Family Outings & Gardens

Our website lists many local attractions and we have brochures a plenty in our recreation room. To have the latest information please also check www.dorsetattractions.co.uk a site maintained by South West Tourism. You will also be able to get discount vouchers to print off for many of the attractions. Also <https://www.visit-dorset.com>